

South Island Steam Excursions

September 2008

During September 2008, Steam Incorporated will be running several steam hauled trips in the South Island. These are in conjunction with a tour of New Zealand by Grand Pacific Tours. Details of the full Grand Pacific Tour can be found at www.grandpacific tours.com.

Steam Incorporated is offering seats on the positioning runs and also a few seats on some of the other days. All of these trips are on a ONE WAY basis.

The train will comprise some of Steam Incorporated's vintage carriages, and will be hauled by steam locomotive Ja1271. The carriages will include some with open end balconies and wide opening windows allowing you to enjoy the romance of steam.
